1. Recognize and claim the present work of Jesus Christ as our Great High Priest.
2. In the light of this encouraging truth, we then must obey the Word of God.
3. In connection with 1 John 1:7, a believer who is indeed obeying God (walking in light) will then have fellowship with believers.
4. As a result it will be achievable to "consider one another", knowing them intimately and deeply in such a way that we can "incite" them towards "love and good works".
5. The "assembling of ourselves" will and should result once believers have completed the prior steps.
